Were Found in Secret Panel in Headquarters of Russian Radicals

ENOUGH TO MAKE 100 DEADLY BOMBS

Expert from the Bureau of Mines Summoned to Make Examination

New York, Nov. 26.—Expert chemists to-day began a thorough examination of the high explosive chemicals accidentally discovered yesterday in the headquarters of the Union of Russian Workers, when federal agents and city detectives entered the building in quest of several radicals for whom they held warrants. An expert from the bureau of mines at Washington has been summoned here to take charge of examination.

A number of little bottles, found hidden in a secret panel in the wall, according to experts of the police "bomb squad," contained sufficient explosive material to manufacture at least 100 deadly bombs. The labels on the bottles bore the names of well known chemical concerns and the police sought the aid of these firms in an endeavor to trace the purchases.

COAL OPERATORS

REPLY TO MADDOO

Statements Misleading and Insinuations Kind of Stuff Which Bolshevism Breeds Upon.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Investigation of the current tax returns of both the coal mine owners and miners was advocated yesterday in an open telegram from the operators to former Secretary McAdoo, replying to his recent message saying the operators' income tax returns for 1917 showed excessive profits.

Conditions in 1917 were "abnormal," the message said, but it asserted Mr. McAdoo was ignorant of conditions in 1918 and 1919, adding that his message on present conditions "carries no weight and requires no answer."

The telegram said Mr. McAdoo's "misleading statements and insinuations are the kind of stuff which bolshevism breeds upon."

"Whatever your purpose," it adds, "it is in exceedingly bad taste for you, a former member of the cabinet of the present administration, to inject yourself into the present tense situation in a manner which can only embarrass and handicap those officers of the government who now are bending every effort to work out a solution of the mine wage controversy."

The telegram was signed "Bituminous Coal Operators, by T. T. Brewster, A. M. Ogle and T. W. Guthrie."

NEW HOME RULE BILL PROBABLE

Would Set Up Two Parliaments in Ireland With Council or Senate

SIR EDWARD CARSON IS KEEPING SILENT

That Is Considered One of Most Hopeful Signs of Situation

London, Nov. 26.—A new home rule bill setting up two parliaments in Ireland with a council or senate of 40 to be chosen by the two, will probably be introduced in Parliament within the next two weeks.

Daily sessions are being held by the cabinet committee in charge of the measure, the subject under discussion at present being finance, which is in charge of a sub-committee under the chairmanship of J. Austen Chamberlain, chancellor of the exchequer. Control of customs has always been a point of sharpest difference when other home rule schemes have been debated and was one of the rocks upon which the Irish convention was shipwrecked. Control of police is another knotty point.

The most hopeful sign of an agreement is the silence which Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster leader, has preserved since the last Irish kite was flown. Sir Edward has not issued any mandates to the Ulster volunteers to "keep their powder dry" while the presence of two hitherto staunch unionist leaders, Walter Hume Long and Baron Birkhead on the committee, shows that Ulster is tending toward conciliation.

It is the supposition that there has been an understanding on the main points before the committee and that in fact, there was a tacit agreement before the committee was named. The final word, however, does not rest with Parliament, but with the Sinn Fein party. If that organization pursues its policy of refusing recognition of any British law, this British-planned Irish parliament may come to nothing, since the Sinn Fein polled a majority of the Irish votes at the last election.

Moderates, however, believe the Sinn Fein leaders may come to keep the mass of their followers in line against an offer of home rule which promises to satisfy most of the ambitions of the old Nationalist party.

The other alternative remains, that the Sinn Fein may capture the new southern parliament and promptly declare Ireland an independent republic. It would be possible in such a case to carry on the work of the parliament without recognizing any imperial overlordship.

TWELVE MURDERS BY "BLACK HAND" GANG

Most of Victims of Chicago Underworld Were Killed When They Attempted to Frustrate Robberies.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Eight more murders, bringing the total to 12, were confessed yesterday by the Cardinal-legate, a "Black Hand" bandit of the south side underworld.

Police say most of the victims were killed when they attempted to frustrate robberies. A flimsy plot on the part of the leaders led to the downfall of the gang.

Victims of a poolroom holdup told police that a young Italian named Thomas Errico was unmolested by the three bandits who robbed the place. Detectives arrested Errico and obtained a confession. He was a new recruit and acted as "advance agent." His duty was to go into the place and look things over.

Sixteen detectives armed with rifles covered every window of the home of Frank Campioni, former leader of the gang, and arrested him without a fight. The home resembled an arsenal.

RANDOLPH

Mrs. Frederick Leeds of New Haven, Conn., arrived here Tuesday to remain the rest of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Chase.

Mrs. J. C. Wells went to Randolph Center Tuesday to pass the day and night with her son, A. C. Wells, and wife, and Thursday to go with them to East Randolph, where there will be a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wells.

Mrs. G. A. Chedel and Miss Beatrice Woodruff, who is living with her, went to Burlington Tuesday to spend the week with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Flint. Mr. Chedel and Robert Chedel join them there for the holiday.

Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Moore left on Tuesday morning for Lyndonville, to Cas. Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, who reside there.

A fire occurred in Bethel Gilead, only a few miles from here, Monday morning, when the barn of Mr. Grider was totally destroyed, the origin of the fire being unknown. The barn contained a horse, hogs, hens and rabbits, all of which were burned. Mr. Grider is a dealer in rabbits, and it is understood that there were several of these. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Galen Osha is passing several days here this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Osha, while attending to some business.

CONSTANT PAIN AFTER EATING

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Corrected by "Fruit-a-lives"

St. Martin's

"For two years, I suffered tortures from Severe Dyspepsia. I had constant pains after eating; pains down the sides and back; and horrible bitter stuff often came up in my mouth. I tried doctors, but they did not help me. But as soon as I started taking 'Fruit-a-lives' (or Fruit Liver Tablets) I began to improve and this medicine, made of fruit juices, relieved me when everything else failed."

PROTESTS RUTLAND'S CLAIM.

Brattleboro High Manager Says Rutland Has Not Won Championship.

The manager of the Brattleboro high school football team, champion of the Connecticut Valley league, protests the right of Rutland high school to claim the high school championship of Vermont in the following letter to the Brattleboro Reformer:

"It appears that the manager of the Rutland high school football team by clever dodging of all teams that appeared capable of beating his team, and by choosing the teams with which to play from week to week, has fraudulently won the state 'championship' (V) from a team which has the magnificent season's record of five games won out of nine played—Spaulding high of Barre."

"While this is magnificent work from the Rutland manager's point of view, no one with a spark of real sporting blood in his system would be satisfied with such a 'championship,' and the Brattleboro fans do not believe that the boys who compose the Rutland high team, or the people of Rutland, approve of a championship so cheaply won."

"Brattleboro played Rutland for the football championship at Bellows Falls in 1917, and Brattleboro won decisively. In 1918, while the epidemic made it impossible for either team to complete their schedules, Rutland's manager claimed the 'championship,' while Brattleboro, with a season's record of 142 to 0 in its opponents, made no claim to championship honors, as no championship game was played, and Brattleboro does not 'claim' championships until they are actually won. This year, with an interscholastic record of 366 points to opponents' 18—over 20 to 1—a record probably ahead of that of any high school team in New England in games against teams averaging much stronger and heavier than the teams met by Rutland, Brattleboro believes that the claim of Rutland to a state championship without beating the Brattleboro team is ridiculous. Brattleboro's record of interscholastic games this season is nine won and none lost."

"To any ordinary mind it would seem that the team from which to regain a championship is the team to whom it was lost. Brattleboro has tried hard to give Rutland that opportunity, offering to play at Brattleboro, as suggested early in the season by Manager O'Brien, or on any mutual field easily accessible to each team. Up to date the manager of the Rutland team has not even acknowledged the receipt of these invitations, although the request of Spaulding high that the so-called championship game on last Saturday be played on neutral grounds was met by Rutland, and the game played at Burlington."

"It is evident that the manager of the Rutland high team has no intention of playing the Brattleboro team. As manager, we acknowledge his privilege to choose the opponents for his team, but deny his right to claim a state championship until he wins it from the only other team in Vermont whose season's record entitles them to play for it. 'M. J. Moran.'"

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he has used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success.

They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid food, yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.
